Additionally, it provides instruction on USA Boccia extending gifts to third parties.

This policy should not be considered in any way as an encouragement to make, solicit or receive any type of gift or entertainment. Indeed, USA Boccia's employees, board members, officers, committee members, task force members, hearing panel members, contractors and volunteers, as well as their spouses and immediate family members may not, under any circumstances, actively solicit any type of gift or entertainment. Further, USA Boccia will not under any circumstances permit or authorize participation in any business gifts or entertainment that might be considered lavish, inappropriate or illegal.

4. Disclosure and Approval

All gifts or invitations falling under Section 3(A)(1), Section 3(A)(3), and Section 3(B)(2) above, and all invitations that involve the third party paying for the Affiliated Individual's travel and/or overnight accommodations, must be promptly reported to the USA Boccia Ethics Committee or Executive Director. Where the gift or invitation is made to the USA Boccia Executive Director, the requisite disclosure must be made to the Ethics Committee. Prior to accepting invitations or gifts that include travel and/or overnight accommodations during business hours, written approval must be received from the USA Boccia Executive Director. In the case of the Director's request for approval, such approval must be received from the Ethics Committee.

Any potential gifts or invitations extended that exceed the limits and/or parameters noted above must be disclosed to, and approved in advance and in writing by USA Boccia Ethics Committee, as appropriate, before they may be accepted.

In addition, the Ethics Committee and Executive Director may, in consultation with the Affiliated Individual, require that any gift(s) be returned, donated to USA Boccia, or donated to another agreed-upon charity if the Ethics Committee believes that such gift(s) is not proper and/or creates an appearance of impropriety.

The Gift Disclosure form is attached.

5. Extending Business Courtesies

General Rules

There may be times when an Affiliated Individual wishes, as a business matter, to extend to a current or potential USA Boccia business associate (i.e., an individual or company) a gift or an invitation to attend a social event (e.g., reception, meal, sporting event, or theatrical event) to further or develop a business relationship. In such instances, gifts may not exceed $100 in value per person per year, without the prior written approval of the Executive Director and/or the Ethics Committee.

Invitations to events must be reasonable and appropriate. Topics of a business nature must be discussed at the event, and the USA Boccia employee or Board Member must be present. The cost associated with such an event should not exceed $100 per person/company per year, except with regard to sporting events and fundraising functions, without the prior written approval of the Executive Director. Moreover, such business entertainment with respect to any particular individual must be infrequent, which, as a general rule, means not more than four (4) times per year. Frequency beyond the foregoing must be pre-approved in writing by the Executive Director. To the extent the USA Boccia employee or Board Member has knowledge of applicable restrictions by a recipient's organization on gifts and entertainment, the USA Boccia employee or Board Member must undertake best efforts for all business entertainment and gifts to comport with the restrictions imposed by the recipient's organization.

USA Boccia employees or Board members may give gift certificates within the limits set forth in this policy, but may never give cash or financial instruments, such as checks or stocks.

a. Development Division/Staff

USA Boccia recognizes that the limits set forth in Section 5 may hamper the ability of the Development Division/Development Staff to perform their job functions. In light of this, the foregoing limits will not apply to the Development Division/Development Staff if the invitation or event is part of normal and reasonable job duties and the event is not lavish or unreasonable. For the Development Division/Development Staff only, the cost of gifts and events for which no prior written approval is required is $600 per person per year. To the extent any gift or invitation exceeds that limitation, the USA Boccia Development employees/staff must obtain the prior written approval from the Executive Director.

b. Government Employees

The giving of gifts to federal, state, and local government employees is governed by a complex set of rules that is typically agency-specific. Generally, the giving of gifts to government employees is very limited or prohibited. Before offering a gift to a government employee, of any value, you must receive the approval of the Executive Director in advance and in writing.

c. Disclosure And Approval

All gifts or invitations offered by an Affiliated Individual must be covered by the appropriate USA Boccia budget and must be approved in advance by the appropriate USA Boccia supervisor. All gifts or invitations extended that exceed the limits and/or parameters noted above must be disclosed to, and approved in advance and in writing by, the Executive Director before they may be offered.
